

2011 Arbor Day Poster Contest

Trees are Enchanting . . . Inside & Out!

2010 Contest Winning Poster, Josey Espinosa from Placitas Elementary

Dear New Mexico 5th Grade Teachers,

You and your students are invited to participate in the annual Arbor Day Poster Contest sponsored by Public Service Company of New Mexico (PNM) in collaboration with Keep New Mexico Beautiful, New Mexico State Forestry and Tree New Mexico. This year's theme, Trees are Enchanting Inside and Out, is designed to increase your students' understanding of how trees grow and function and the benefits they provide to our communities.

New Mexico Contest Sponsor

A personal commitment to New Mexico

How to Get Started

Carefully follow ALL the contest guidelines and use educational resources (Trees Are Terrific curriculum) available at www.knmb.org (link to Education)

Mail your school's winning poster by February 11, 2011 to: Kori Taylor, Keep New Mexico Beautiful, PO Box 90924, Albuquerque, NM 87199-0924.

Awards will be provided for the top 3 posters submitted. Awards will include savings bonds, framed certificates, environmental education books and a ceremony with a tree planting at the school of the 1st place winner.
